

OHIO TRANSFER COUNCIL

2009-10 Membership Application

The Ohio Transfer Council (OTC) is an organization committed to the enhancement and facilitation of transfer for students between and among its member institutions by providing a forum for professionals to gain a broader understanding of articulation and transfer policies and procedures, share ideas and information, and expand networking and professional development opportunities.

Membership in the Ohio Transfer Council is open to individuals in Ohio employed by regionally accredited institutions of Higher Education including four year public, four year private, community colleges, and technical colleges. Individuals from regionally accredited institutions outside Ohio are admitted as voting members of OTC, but may not hold office. Individuals who are involved or interested in issues related to the mission of OTC but are not employed by regionally accredited institutions of higher education, are admitted as non-voting, non-office holding members. Membership runs from July 1-June 30 of each year.
